

104 E. Roosevelt Road ♦ Suite 204 ♦ Wheaton, Illinois 60187-5200
Phone: 630-665-5556 ♦ Fax: 630-665-9571 ♦ www.dcfdn.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
November 11, 2011

Contact: Jessica Daley,
Program and Communications Manager
(630) 665-5556 or jdaley@dcfdn.org

Daley and Hartman Promoted

Wheaton, IL – The DuPage Community Foundation is pleased to announce the promotion of Jessica Daley to Program and Communications Manager, and Jeffrey Hartman to Director of Development.

In her new role, Daley is responsible for the Foundation's scholarship program, assisting the director of grants in administering the Foundation's various grant and other program-related activities, and for the successful implementation of the Foundation's marketing strategies.

Daley has worked for the Foundation during breaks from college since 2005. She began working full-time at the Foundation in October, 2008 as the associate grants coordinator.

Daley graduated from Villanova University in Pennsylvania in May, 2008 with dual Bachelor of Arts degrees in Economics and English. While attending Villanova, she participated in two overseas study programs at Cambridge University in the UK, and the National University of Ireland, Galway. She currently lives in Carol Stream.

As director of development, Hartman will work directly with the President, Program and Communications Manager, Development Committee and Board of Trustees to plan and implement successful fund development and marketing strategies focused on growing the Foundation's endowment and increasing its visibility throughout the community.

Hartman joined the Foundation in November, 2009 as manager of development. He graduated from Trinity Christian College in Palos Heights with a Bachelor of Arts in Church and Ministry Leadership and Theology. He has also completed various post-graduate courses and seminars at the Institute for Youth Ministries at Princeton Theological Seminary in Princeton, NJ.

Prior to joining the Foundation, Hartman served the Elmhurst community as center director for SCORE! Educational Centers and he served on the staff of Grace United Methodist Church in Naperville as the director of youth ministries.

Hartman lived in Naperville for 22 years and currently lives in Yorkville with his wife, Erin, and their daughter, Alyssa.

"These promotions are well deserved," said Foundation President David McGowan. "Both Jess and Jeff are essential to this organization and I am happy to recognize them for their hard work. Efficient and effective communications to our constituents is vital as we engage in new programs and grow our assets. Both Jess and Jeff are more than capable of leading the Foundation in these areas.” Please join us in congratulating Jessica Daley and Jeffrey Hartman on their promotions.

About the Foundation:

Established in 1986, The DuPage Community Foundation is a publicly supported 501(c)(3) organization to which contributions are tax deductible. It was created to benefit the people of DuPage County and receives contributions and bequests into a permanent endowment from individuals, corporations, organizations and foundations wishing to make lasting contributions to the people of DuPage. The earnings on these funds are then used, in accordance with donor wishes, for the Foundation’s grant making and community leadership activities.

The DuPage Community Foundation seeks to raise the quality of life throughout DuPage County by fostering philanthropy, connecting donors to area needs and building community partnerships. Based on the American virtues of volunteerism and philanthropy, the Foundation fosters a legacy of support for the people of DuPage County by making grants to not-for-profit organizations working in the areas of arts and culture, education, environment, health, and human services. Since its inception, the Foundation has built its endowment to nearly $35 million and awarded more than $12 million in grants to not-for-profit agencies serving the residents of DuPage County and beyond.

For more information on the Foundation, or to arrange future media opportunities, please contact Jessica Daley, program and communications manager, at (630) 665-5556 or jdaley@dcfdn.org.